

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Sharon Schnabel, who is retiring from the South Dakota Department of Labor and Regulation after serving over 40 years; and,

Whereas, On December 20, 1976, Sharon began her career with the Department working in several locations for the Division of Unemployment Insurance (UI) including Pine Ridge, Sioux Falls, and Aberdeen and in many different positions including Clerk II, UI Claims Examiner I, UI Claims Examiner II, UI Claims Representative III, UI Field Representative II, Tax Program Representative, Management Analyst, UI Program Administrator, and Deputy/Assistant Director; and,

Whereas, Sharon's extensive knowledge of the UI program and tenacity will be missed, and she has been a loyal leader who consistently followed through on assigned tasks and duties, shared her wisdom, and offered advice; and,

Whereas, On June 30, 2017, Sharon will retire to spend more time with her family, remain involved in and support community fine arts events, pursue photography, baking, and traveling, and she will be missed by her colleagues and friends; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30, 2017, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for a long, healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard
